

Lay With Me

The Flying Eyes

Lay with me in the whisper of the night
Like a tiny echo I will keep you from sight
My world is a turn stall and I need you to hope
Girl I'll never leave you, you remind me of gold, yeah!
Uhhh, you put a chill in the heart of my soul

Lay with me in the middle of the fray
If it wasn't for your love I'd leave yesterday
But words are frozen in heaven so cold
Girl I'll never leave you, you remind me of gold!
Uhhh, you put a chill in the heart of my soul

Birds upon my window hear them singing` decay
Jesus won't you come and save me from the bluesy sunny day
The devil`s smile is charming and he`s calling my name
Girl you know that lust is my favourite game, yeah!

Lay with me in the whisper of the night
Like a tiny echo I will keep you from sight
My world is a turn stall and I need you to hope
Girl I'll never leave you, you remind me of gold, yeah!
