Don't Say

Jon B.

Don't say what you won't do
You know you'll be the first one
To go on through yes you will
Don't say what you won't do
You know you'll be the first one
To go on through yes you willI know you mean well
But looking at you one can't tell
You've got changes to make
'Cause the why you treat me girlJust ain't right
Always fronting on someone
But never think about the damage you've done
To me and it's about damn time I talk about itEvery time I do for you
You turn around and make me feel like a fool
With your actions, so much for the words
Baby, I love you yes'Cause now I've wised up girl
It's time for me to go
You better think about it
'Cause I'm hear to let you knowDon't say what you won't do
You know you'll be the first one
To go on through yes you will
Don't say what you won't do
You know you'll be the first one
To go on through yes you willI wanna make good love to you
I wanna do the things you wouldn't do
But you're forcing me to look the other way baby
I'm seeing things that I really shouldn't seeGirl, you better hurry 'cause you're running out of time
And this is the last chance for you to be mine
And I'm asking you what you gonna do
Tell me what you gonna do'Cause now I've wised up girl
It's time for me to go
You better think about it
'Cause I'm hear to let you knowDon't say what you won't do
You know you'll be the first one
To go on through yes you will
Don't say what you won't do
You know you'll be the first one
To go on through yes you will
