Someone You Know

Further Seems Forever

Watch somebody fall from grace
When there's nobody there to take their place
You can't help but feel alone
You left guilt in your own device
There was no one there to tell you to think twice
You can't help but feel alone
All the times we were losing sight
There's eternal, there's no light alone
It could be someone you know
The times we felt all the pain is real
We couldn't help the way we feel, come on
This could be someone you know
This life keeps calling
This life keeps calling on and on
This life keeps calling
This life, it keeps calling on and on
Take my soul I
Take my soul I
Break my heart I'm
Ready ready ready' when you are
Take my soul I
Break my heart I'm
Ready ready ready
You watch somebody turn away
You've waited all of your life to see one day
You can't help but feel alone
And all the times we were losing sight
There's no shadows there's no light, come on
This could be someone you know
This life keeps calling
This life keeps calling on and on
This life keeps calling
This life, it keeps calling on and on
Take my soul I
Take my soul I
Break my heart I'm
Ready ready ready, when you are
Take my soul I
Break my heart I'm

Ready ready ready, when you are
Ready ready ready
Ready ready ready, when you are
Ready ready ready
