Tyler's Song

Jake Coco

Go son
If you get up but they strap you arounds
Then just remember that I will always be there
When I say to you, "Daddy loves you, understands"
I'm out in the real world again I'm tryin'
Raise your guard again
They don't give a damn
Raise your guard again
They don't give a damn
Raise your guard again
They don't give a damn
Raise your guard again
They don't give a damn
(Give a damn)
(They don't give a damn)
(Go son)
(They don't give a damn)
(Give a damn)
Don't compormise your ideals for anyone else
Respect your Mom and always think of her first
When I say to you, "Daddy loves you, understands"
I'm out in the real world again I'm tryin'
Raise your guard again
They don't give a damn
Raise your guard again
They don't, they don't give a
Raise your guard again
They don't give a damn
Raise your guard again
They don't, they don't give a
(Give a son)
Son, if the sun don't shine
I'll try like hell to make light from the dark
Son, if the sun don't shine
I'll try like hell to make light from the dark for you
Raise your guard again
They don't give a damn
Raise your guard again
They don't give a damn

Raise your guard again
They don't give a damn
Raise your guard again
They don't give a damn
They don't give a damn
They don't give a damn
They don't give a damn
They don't give a damn
Go son
