

Lady's In Trouble With The Law

LA Priest

Since I heard from the law, I never look back anymore
From one life to the next will be gone
Different ways, I never want to explain
The things I didn't love
I was leaning back and cleaning up
The keys were in, the windows were down
With the green lights shinning
I'm waking up, I'm shaken up, there's something up
That wasn't the sound, the hate
Even though I know that's wrong, it feels right
Even though I know that I'm low, I feel high
Even when the morning comes, I need the night
Blame it on the one that I love, ain't right I drift in and out, you wonder what I'm about
But I don't even know, I've become
Forever the same, and everyone to explain
The things I didn't know
Shinning up, setting up, telling up and turn it around
The green lights shinning
Shine up through the growing up
I'm tired of the fooling around
But hey, now when I'm low, I feel high
And now I got a harder living, feel like
Even when I know that that's wrong, it feels right
And even though I know that I'm low, I feel high
And even when the morning comes, I need the night
When I blame it on the one that I love, it ain't right

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>