The Beta Band

I think I cracked my skull on the way down
I think I lost my head when I lay down
The fear of facts presented in the cold light of day

I say the time has come for decision
Better steer my boat for a reason
Lost the way I went over horizon
She went out of sight
The girl lost me a lifetime

Sometimes I feel, ['m washed up under]
Sometimes I feel, [I'm washed up under]

I say the time has come for decision
Better steer my boat for a reason
Lost on the way I went over horizon
She went out of sight
The girl lost me a lifetime

[Chorus:]

[Repeat: 1st verse]

And when I step back from all this I see that I'm fighting
I can't help myself, there's no reason for lying Truth and fiction they all become one
Help me from the sea to the beach to the laaaaa
Sometimes I feel, I'm washed up under baby
