The Edge

Tonight Alive

You said you'd stay, I said I'd wait
All those words we spoke in vain
I still recall the bitter taste
I guess some things never changeAnd then I think of yesterday
And every promise that you made
I never thought I'd be
The one that you would breakBut I will fight until the day the world stops turning
And they will fall to ashes, I will just keep burningBut tonight I need you to save me
I'm too close to breaking, I see the light
I am standing on the edge of my life
Standing on the edge of my life
Standing on the edgeSo this is how it all turns out
You're the hero, I'm left out
I should've known you couldn't stand
Up for me and be a manI still have dreams of you at night
I can't tell the dark from light
I never thought I'd be
The one you'd leave behindBut I will fight until the day the world stops turning
And they will fall to ashes, I will just keep burningBut tonight I need you to save me
I'm too close to breaking, I see the light
I am standing on the edge of my lifeWith each step I hold my breath
And I'm tangled in your spiderwebs
How could, how could I fall
And I wonder if you ever cared at allBut I will fight until the day the world stops turning
And they will fall to ashes, I will just keep burningBut tonight I need you to save me
I'm too close to breaking, I see the light
I am standing on the edge of my lifeI am standing on the edge of my life
Standing on the edge of my life
I am standing on the edge of my life
