

Cold Summer

Fuel

The times I felt you on my breath
They scraped me to the bone
The times I felt the give no rest
And they held me down
You've been hit now, you've been sorry
You've been hit now, I'm so sorry,
You've been hit now And it has been a cold summer without you
Gotta get back all I need
And it has been a long cold summer without you
And the fear of love is fadin', yeah, yeah
All over me, all over me The tethered lives fell down on me
Crushed and despised from you
The future for us seems so bleak
But I'll fight for that too You've been hit now, you've been sorry
You've been hit now, I'm so sorry,
You've been hit now And it has been a cold summer without you
Gotta get back all I need
And it has been a long cold summer without you
And the fear of love is fadin', yeah
Over me, Your heartbeat races
The venom pours from the vein
The dyin' savior wants to take your life too You've been hit now, you've been sorry
You've been hit now, I'm so sorry
You've been hit now And it has been a cold summer without you
Gotta get back all I need
And it has been a long cold summer without you
And the fear of love is fadin', yeah, yeah
It's been a cold summer without you
Gotta get back all I need
Now it has been a long cold summer without you
And the fear of love is fadin', yeah, yeah
All over me
