

Flagship Eleanor

Seven Mary Three

I've got a tricked-out receiver
And I think it's built to win
I've got one chance to receive her voice
Translucent, delicate Breakdown, breakout, Eleanor
I think your loneliness is code
It symbolizes every man
Who's empty as a hole Eleanor, I'm waiting for you I've got a number to call you back
But I think leave well-enough alone
I chased a shoestring to a heart-attack
Closeted everything I own Come down, crash land, Eleanor
I think your loneliness is code
It symbolizes every man
Who's empty as a hole Eleanor, I'm waiting for you Flagship, come down
Crash land, my town Eleanor, I'm waiting for you
