Run Away (with Eric Lumiere)

Cosmic Gate

You have been afraid
Now it's time to face the light
It's the reason you want
The reason you want
To be alive
You have been asleep
Now it's time to wake inside
You're hearing a call
The call that you try to deny
(The call that you try to deny)Come
If you wanna run away with me
Tonight tonight
And come
If you wanna see what I can see
Tonight tonightMeet me on the plane
The place where both our worlds collide
The place with no feel
The place where no hate
Can reside
When you're here you're safe
In my arms you cannot hide
The truth of your hearts
The one that you are you can't deny
(The one that you are you can't deny)Come
If you wanna run away with me
Tonight tonight
And come
If you wanna see what I can see
Tonight tonight
