

Nirvana

Blood On the Dance Floor

This is redemption for all my people in a song.
Here's the key, this is what you need.
That will open your eyes, your heart will never tell you lies.
Three cheers now for the hate to demise.
A place to escape where we can be free.
A place we live in harmony.
Oblivious to hatred is what you'll find.
My friend, this is the message to end your suffering.
Nirvana! (Elevate me higher)
Marijuana! (To end your suffering)
Nirvana! (Awaken your inner soul)
Marijuana! (Let it go, you have control)
This is the ending to all your hate in a form.
That will say let yourself away.
I hope my love's sent, because it means to me
More than some random stranger's hate.
I don't know what you do to me,
But you make me feel so happy.
You gotta rid your mind of these awful bad deceptions.
If you plan on finding self-acceptation.
Nirvana! (Elevate me higher)
Marijuana! (To end your suffering)
Nirvana! (Awaken your inner soul)
Marijuana! (Let it go, you have control)
Have no fear,
You're behind the wheel.
Love will set you free,
Nirvana is your only freedom.
I will follow you,
Wherever you may go.
To the end of the world,
I'm forever yours.
Nirvana! (Elevate me higher)
Marijuana! (To end your suffering)
Nirvana! (Awaken your inner soul)
Marijuana! (Let it go, you have control)
Have no fear (Nirvana!)
You're behind the wheel.
Love will set you free (Nirvana!)

Nirvana is your only freedom.
