Sister

Cris Williamson

Born of the earth, a child of God
Just one among the family
And you can count on me to share the load
And I will always help you hold your burdens
And I will be the one to help you ease your pain

Lean on me, I am your sister
Believe on me, I am your friend
Lean on me, I am your sister
Believe on me, I am your friend

I will fold you in my arms like a white winged dove
Shine in your soul, your spirit is crying (spirit is crying)

Born of the earth, a child of God
Just one among the family
And you can count on me to share the load
And I will always help you hold your burdens
And I will be the one to help you ease your pain

Lean on me, I am your sister
Believe on me, I am your friend
Lean on me, I am your sister
Believe on me, I am your friend

Lean on me, I am your sister
Believe on me, I am your friend
Lean on me, I am your sister
Believe on me, I am your friend

I am your friend
