Kings Kaleidoscope

Heard my first heart beat
Before I could breathe
Before my first cry
You knew me
You knit me together
When I was conceive
When I was design
You knew me

You know what I wonder
Before I can speak
Before my first thoughts
You know me
You see what I'm dreaming
When I go to sleep
When I'm waking up
You know me

I could run away
Or hide beneath the sea
You still hear my face
I could drown in peace
Or die beyond the deep
You are always there

Crafting the heavens
And care for my soul
In all of your ways
You're Holy
When I'm lost in darkness
And far from my home
Your hand guides my way
And holds me

I could run away
Or hide beneath the sea
You still hear my face
I could drown in peace
Or die beyond the deep
Oh my God

You are there

You are the God
Who knows and loves me
The God of David
The rock of ages
You are the king
Who drowse above me
The King of Zion
The mighty lion

You are the God
Who knows and loves me
The God of David
The rock of ages
You are the king
Who drowse above me
The King of Zion
The mighty lion
