

Not My Baby

Saigon & Razah aka The Rat

There are guys who will lie
Then they'll hang you out to dry
But not my baby
Promise you everything
Then they never buy the ring
But not my baby
Say they're out with their pals
When they're seein' other gals
But not my baby
And they think it's a crime
When they have to spend a dime
But not my baby
Bring you gifts now and then
Always from the five and ten
But not my baby
And I've heard stories of
Guys afraid to fall in love
But not my baby
I don't have to dream my dream, baby
He's the sweetest dream
That's already come true
And every time we touch, just touch
I can feel how very much
How much he loves me
Not my baby, no, not my baby

I don't have to dream my dream, baby
He's the sweetest dream
That's already come true
And every time we touch, just touch
I can feel how very much
How much he loves me
Not my baby, no, not my baby
There are guys that I've seen
Who are wrong or being mean
But not my baby
Gettin' mad, gettin' cross
If you don't let them be boss
But not my baby

Yes, I've sure got a lot
And the best thing that I've got
I've got my baby
And I know he will stay
He will never go away
No, not my baby
No, not my baby
No, not my baby
Not my baby, no, not my baby
No, not my baby
No, not my baby
