

Old Welsh Song

Joan Baez

I take with me where I go
A pen and a golden bowl
Poet and beggar step in my shoes
Or a prince in a purple shawl I bring with me when I return
To the house, that my father's hands made
A crooning bird on a crystal bough
And oh, a sad, sad word

Songwriters

SCHICKELE, PETER Published by Lyrics © Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>