

Oh My Love

Kat Edmonson

Oh, my love.
How can I show my love?
It's not enough just to kiss you.
It's not enough to hold you in my arms.
It's not enough to tell you of you charms.
And tonight more than the Paris lights,
How you sparkle and shine.
Oh my love what to do, to show my love for you
And to thank you for being mine.
Oh my love what to do, to show my love for you
And to thank you for being mine.
Oh, my love.
Oh, my love.
Oh my love
