

Fallen Angel

Hostage Calm

Fallen angel, raised red, white and blue
Young and able, what are they doing for you?
Bible baby: hope you've been reading it right
Blue eyes don't cry, but my-my, are they tired tonightFallen angel, falling into my arms
Fallen angel, falling into my armsFallen angel, raised red, white and blue
Young and stable, but now it's coming unscrewed
Fallen angel, I been singing your name
Over oceans, and every inch of the USA
Fallen angel, I'm falling for you
Fallen angel, I'm falling for youFallen angel, raised red, white and blue
Young and able, what are they doing for you?
Roaring twenties, ain't it a gilded age?
Hope has failed us, but I'm still hoping you'll stay
Blue eyes, don't cry: it won't be long
Before they lead us to slaughter.
Take me tonight, anywhere
As long as I die by the water.Lost the battle, lost the war.
Lost the nerve to long for more...Oh, fallen angel...
