

Home Tree

Bonsai Nation

Trees are all around us everyday
They offer me wisdom in their way
I look around with my feet on the ground
I wonder what it's like to be so free?

I know why I cannot close my eyes
It's just too much to take in all the time
And I know why I cannot feel the ground
I'd much rather just watch it spin around

Living as one in harmony
Isn't that the way things should be?
When I look up and down from the sky to the leaves on the ground
I wonder what it's like to be a tree

I know why I cannot close my eyes
It's just too much to take in all the time
And I know why I cannot feel the ground
I'd much rather just watch it spin around

And I know why I cannot close my eyes
It's just too much to take in all the time
And I know why I cannot feel the ground
I'd much rather just watch it spin around
