Your Eyes

Nick Neblo

What I was thinking just god knows,
I saw your eyes and there I froze,
you've no idea what you arose,
oh hell, I was so close!

But for some reason I was blocked,
my arms, my heart and my breath stopped and I kept staring at your eyes, you got me hypnotised.

Who are you?
Who brought you?
Who sent you?
Who called you?
And since then I can't see
without your eyes in me,
you are my fantasy.

If I went back I'm sure, I know that I would be so stuck and slow,
'cause babe I could never fight
the power of your eyes.

Who are you?
Who brought you?
Who sent you?
Who called you?
And since then I can't see
without your eyes in me,
you are my fantasy.

Who are you?
Who brought you?
Who sent you?
Who called you?
And since then I can't see
without your eyes in me,
you are my destiny.
