Destination: Hell

Turbonegro

I've packed my bags
And I'm ready to run
From what I've said
And what I've doneI look in the mirror
Look at my face
Oh, god I've got to puke
In disgraceAll right I felt really tall
Like no one could stop me at all
I felt big, bigger than a wiz
But magic tricks can't undo thisSirhan, Sirhan
I wish it wasn't done
I just wanted to have some fun
But now it's too lateI'm ready to leave
I know it's coming tonight
Don't want to deceive you
It won't be all rightDid it once, it's gonna happen twice
Even though I know it isn't nice
Now it's closing me in
It's closing uptightThere's nowhere to run
There's no reason to fight
There's nothing left for me to tell
The future's set, I'm going straight to hellSirhan, Sirhan
I wish it wasn't done
I just wanted to have some fun
But now it's too lateDestination: Hell
