Sweet Essence (You're Love Is Something)

Somebody asked me how I knew

Oh you were the one for me baby

And I was the one for you

I never had to ask myself that question why

Your love is something that I know is mine

Your love is something that I can't deny

Your love is something that I feel inside

Oh every day I thank the Lord above

For the sweet essence of your love

Oh I know this love is meant to be

You are the biggest part of me

Deeper than the deepest ocean

Oh, I take pride in knowing

That I got you by my side

Every waiting, ever standing by, oh

Your love is something that I know is mine

Your love is something that I can't deny

Your love is something that I feel inside

Not an hour out of a million days

No, no, no, no, no

Could you ever take your sweet love away

Not a one day out of a million years, oh

Could I ever live without you here, oh

Inside, every day I thank the Lord above

For the sweetness of your love

Kindness of your love

Patience of your love

One and only lover

Never be another, oh

Your love is something that I know is mine

Your love is something that I can't deny

Your love is something that I feel inside

Feel inside

Oh yeah, babe
