Flourished and sprayed with perfume So sweetened, you're doomed for a well garnished life

Flourished and sprayed with perfume

So sweetened, you're doomed for a well garnished tomb nowTextiles with textures caressing your skin

Woman so primitive looking content

Pout your lips, you're such a bird

Dont utter a wordDont wrinkle your forehead

Dont even think recommendation from a magazine

And glittering skin such an atomic bomb

When she steps it inWhat an ideal

To make you proud lick her face

And tell her wow pout her lips, shes such a bird
