Let It Rain

Brendan James

You see the struggle on my face,
You see it storming in my eye
You see it heavy on my shoulder,
You see me swaying on the lineBring on the troubles of the morning and the stories of my life
Look up above the clouds are forming
And I'm not gonna hideLet it rain on me,
Let my shelter crumble down
Take it all away,
Don't need no one to save me now
I'm gonna let my body drown and keep my head above the water
Let it rain on me, let it rain on meI'm not getting any younger,
I took the longer road
But I know it's made me stronger
Out here on my ownBring on the troubles of the morning and the stories of my life
Look up above the clouds are forming and I'm not gonna hideLet it rain on me,
Let my shelter crumble down
Take it all away,
Don't need no one to save me now
I'm gonna let my body drown and keep my head above the water
Let it rain on me, let it rain on meAnd like a single ray of light
It can pierce the darkest night
I was meant to make it throughSo let the future crash on me
And let the water set me free
Nobody wins before they loseLet it rain on me,
Let my shelter crumble down
Take it all away,
Don't need no one to save me now
I'm gonna let my body drown keep my head above the water
Let it rain on me, let it rain on me
