I Know

James Aris

I Know- James Aris

(Verse 1)
It's been a long time comin' now,
I been on my grind like I run it now,
Workin overtime for the hunnids now,
And I got no plans on comin down,
I been honest now,
It's not new to me,
I'm tryna get this money,
Fuck the jewelry,
I seen them schemin tryna act cool wit me,
The way you dap me up you're not foolin me,
'Cause I know you better,
Headin for the throne man I know you fed up,
I been on the wave since the boy was seven,
Tell the haters keep it comin cuz I hardly let up,
And you hardly met us,
And you hatin like you did it obvious,
When you hit average so you know what time it is,
Hope you been feelin my latest,
If you ask me who is the greatest,
Then I'll say its prolly us,

(Hook)
I know we all talkin shit about me,
I know we all want this shit without me,
I know we all just so quick to doubt me,
No one to see me make this bread,
Yall rather see me break instead,
Will hate to see me make it man,
But trust me dog I'll make it there,
I know, (Yeah)
I know, I know,
I know, (Yeah)
I know, I know,
