

Lucky

Melissa Etheridge

I wanna see how lucky Lucky can be, yeah I saw you through my blind intoxication
My shock induced insane self medication
You looked at me and smiled
Said, "Get ready to get wild
Sugar, you just need a brief vacation" I wanna see how lucky Lucky can be
I wanna ride with my Angel and live shockingly
I wanna drive to the edge and into the sea
I wanna see how lucky Lucky can be I was dried up, I was starving, I was mangled
I looked like hell, twisted up and tangled
You whispered in my ear
The ghosts are gone, it's clear
For too long you've been tied up, you've been strangled I wanna see how lucky Lucky can be
I wanna ride with my Angel and live shockingly
I wanna drive to the edge and into the sea
I wanna see how lucky Lucky can be I don't wanna ride on the shotgun side
Don't wanna be a quaint observer on this supersonic ride
Double down, split the aces to the races
I feel lucky tonight I wanna see how lucky Lucky can be
I wanna ride with my Angel and live shockingly
I wanna drive to the edge and into the sea
I wanna see how lucky Lucky can be I wanna see just how lucky Lucky can be
To ride with my Angel, how I love being free
I wanna drive to the edge and into the sea
I wanna see how lucky Lucky can be, yeah I wanna see how lucky Lucky can be
How lucky Lucky can be, yeah
