

Under

Brian Bates

Every burden I've ever carried
I'm leaving here, I'm leaving here
Every wound my hands have delivered
I'm leaving here, I'm leaving here

Under, I'm going under
Let the water, water wash over
Let me rise up out of these old ways
Into new life, into your name

All my broken, desperate days
I'm leaving here, I'm leaving here
All my hopeless and reckless ways
I'm leaving here, I'm leaving here

Under, I'm going under
Let the water, water wash over
Let me rise up out of these old ways
Into new life, into your name

Mark me with love that flows from your name
As I plunge under and rise again
Let your kingdom rule to the depths of my soul
Make me free, make me whole

Under, I'm going under
Let the water, water wash over
Let me rise up out of these old ways
Into new life, into your name
