

Old Bones

Harry Nilsson

I just can't wait to get to old bones
I said old bones, I said old bones
Take me to the land of moans and groans
I said moans and groans, I said moans and groans

Where physical health an mental wealth
Will pass each other in different directions
On the same road, at the same time
And everyone will be a friend of mine
We'll be like fine old wine, we'll be like fine old wine

I just can't wait to get to old bones
I said old bones, I said old bones
Take me to the land of home sweet home
I said home sweet home, I said home sweet home

Where living in peace and living in hurry
Will pass each other without any hurry
On the same road at the same time
And everyone will stop to say hello
And everyone will know there'll be so little time

Where living in peace and living in hurry
