

Twisted

Annie Lennox

I didn't want to know you
I didn't mean to be a friend
But now it seems
I'd run through burnin' fire
Just to see your face again I didn't want to hurt you
Or be hurt by you
At the closing of the game
But now it seems
Too late for that desire
I watched it all go up in flames
I watched it all go up in flames Tell me, darlin', what would it take
To untie the twist in us
'Cause it's makin' my heart ache, yeah Under a cloak of darkness
Under the covers where we laid
There I spent my dreams with you
Now I've hid them all away
I guess I've hid them all away Nothin' and no one
Touches me like you
But how could I believe in this
When none of it was true? Yeah I knew from the first time that I set my eyes on you Oh my darlin', oh my lover
All the words come back to me
I remember, I remember
Everything you said to me
We went walking out in silence
Underneath the cherry tree
Falling blossom, falling blossom
Falling from the cherry tree I remember, I remember
Everything you did to me
Oh my darlin', oh my lover
All the words come back to me I remember, I remember
Everything you said to me
We went walking out in silence
Underneath the cherry tree
Falling blossom, falling blossom
Falling from the cherry tree I remember, I remember
Everything you did to me
Oh my darlin', oh my lover
