Trusting You

Freda Payne

I can see you now
Friendly face on sahky ground
I stand back of you
It's safer there
I'll see you through
Trusting you
Is there anyway of Trusting you
I put my Trust in you
Is there anyway of
Trusting You

Dreams schemes plots and plans
You pat my back and shake my hand
Your sleeve holds an acce
You sing your song
You keep my pace
Your time will come and go
For a while you'll have control
Take your pound of flesh
Feed your greed and leave guiltless
