Blend In

Justin Tranter

Hello there
Something catch your eye?
Hello there
Something you want to say?
Hello there
Do you think I canâ€™t see you staring this way?
Hello there
Do we have a problem?
Hello miss
Yes, that comes in blue.
Hello there
Do you think that I canâ€™t hear you?

I see you talking under your breath,
and I can hear how you whisper.
I see you point me out to your friends,
and donâ€™t think I donâ€™t know I donâ€™t blend in.
I know I donâ€™t blend.

I keep walking till they go away
I keep walking like I am not hurt
I keep walking and tell myself that this builds character.

I see you talking under your breath,
and I can hear how you whisper.
I see you point me out to your friends,
and donâ€™t think I donâ€™t know I donâ€™t blend in.
I know I donâ€™t blend.

Sometimes I wish I could go home with my mother
and my father could hold my hand.
My brothers could fight off all the people staring
and my father could hold my hand.

Sometimes I wish I could learn how to walk straight and I wish Iâ€™d stop caring because all eyes and whispers are glaring
Sometimes I wish I wasnâ€™t so proud of all the things I am.
So my brothers could fight off all the people staring.

Hello there
Do we have a problem?
Keep walking, these people are not worth
So I tell myself this builds character.

I see you talking under your breath,
and I can hear how you whisper.
I see you point me out to your friends,
And donâ€™t think I donâ€™t know I donâ€™t blend in.
I see you talking under your breath,
and I can hear how you whisper.
I see you point me out to your friends,
And donâ€™t think I donâ€™t know I donâ€™t blend in.
I know I donâ€™t blend.
Blend in, blend inâ€¦
