

Underground

Redlight King

Stare at the gates there's a time and place
When the lions arrive and they're comin' your way
Outback in the corner of a crooked town
Duck down better hit the ground

This ain't no sunset cruise
No hope in hell someone's helpin' you
These hard knock streets ain't paved with gold
They were built by skin and bones

When it all comes tumblin' down
And the gear is in your heart
For a moment that you fell
Don't let it fall apart

Welcome to the underground
There's no way to turn back now
I'll show you what it's all about
Follow me, I'll take you down to the underground

If death's gonna deal you one more try
Then stare his stone cold in the eye
Don't be denied just don't show your guard
Or the sweat and the panic starts

If you've been knocked out behind closed doors
Then come through the desert and name your horse
Rebuild the course and rewrite all the rules
'Cause we weren't born to lose

When it all comes tumblin' down
And the gear is in your heart
For a moment that you fell
Don't let it fall apart

Welcome to the underground
There's no way to turn back now
I'll show you what it's all about
Follow me, I'll take you down to the underground

They'll hang you up, they'll bleed you dry
The hand that feeds you might rob you blind
For all you're worth, just one last chance
Hold on tight because you're not dead yet

Welcome to the underground
There's no way to turn back now
I'll show you what it's all about
Follow me, I'll take you down to the underground

They'll hang you up, they'll bleed you dry
Welcome to the underground
They'll hang you up, they'll bleed you dry
Welcome to the underground

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by Peiken, Shelly M / Gagel, Wally / Paynter, Michael Lyrics Â© Kobalt Music Publishing Ltd., Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by <https://damnllyrics.com/>