

Hercules

Fly Away Hero

I was weak
I was broken
I was tossed out in the ocean

I would cry
I would whimper
I would shake and I would shiver

I would sink to the bottom
among the wreckage and the flotsam.

When I reached the ocean floor
I decided I wouldn't take it anymore

So I swam swam out of the deep
And I crawled my way out of the sea
And I reached the land where I knew I belonged
And I was strong and I was strong

And if there is a mountain I can make it move
When the sky is falling I can hold it for you
And I will keep on fighting till I make you see
I'm as strong as Hercules

You were caught
In the motions
When you were lost out in the ocean

Now you can quit
You could cave in
But just know you're not beyond saving

I know this is something you'll beat
You'll crawl your way out of the sea
'Cause in my eyes can never do you wrong
'Cause you are strong you are so strong

And if there is a problem I will clutch it out

And if there is a battle I can win that bout
And Iâ€™ll show the world Iâ€™m longing to be Stronger than Hercules
