

Green Jay

Christina Courtin

of all the birds in the sky you reign as the highest and it's so hard to see you from way down heresoaring over my head i am just a small scar in your perfect picture of the way it should bebut what I'd do for you green jay so close and so far away oh what I'd give for you green jay most daystaking things in and spitting them back up oh how i understand this all too wellbut if you nested with me oh how I'd keep you so safe from all the ugly creatures that want to eat yabut i do too my green jay for all i am just with you this way hey something good will come for me one day
