Second Chance

Kurt Nilsen

The same's firned and drew my fingers
In this dizzy never ends
I'm out here on my forgiveness round
Walking down the devil's steps
My hands are sore as wounds on my body is trying to nounI'm taking one step out of a time
So I won't fall and break my spineOh, I know I can change the hands of time
Yeah, I know I can take back what was mine
As I walk the walk of shame
I've got no one else to blameOh, I know, now, what a fool I've beenSo take me back to Eden Garden
So I can live out my dreams with you
Ah, take me back with the dumb mind sense
I'm a better man, I know that now
To give me a second chanceYou judge me if you want
But you know you've made your point
Well I'm sitting here, in the centres lounge
Waiting on a recallMy feet's got going chains on
And there's no one to take them off
I'm getting restless and confused
Cause you're putting me on holdOh, I know I can change the hands of time
Yeah, I know I can take back what was mine
As I walk the walk of shame
I've got no one else to blameOh, I know, now, what a fool I've beenSo take me back to Eden Garden
So I can live out my dreams with you
Ah, take me back with the dumb mind sense
I'm a better man, I know that now
To give me a second chanceTo give me a second chanceOh, I know I can change the hands of time
Yeah, I know I can take back what was mine
As I walk the walk of shame
I've got no one else to blameOh, I know, now, what a fool I've beenSo take me back to Eden Garden
So I can live out my dreams with you
Ah, take me back with the dumb mind sense
I'm a better man, I know that now
I'm a better man, I know that now
I'm a better man, I know that now
To give me a second chanceWon't you give me a second chance'
