Sacred Hell

Edguy

Ravens in the air, no one in the streets
Seems like the fiend just come back
Riding on fire, scarlet's the sky
Love's slowly starting to crackWhiplash and torture, envy is driving our hate
The whole world around is mad and confused
The end has begun, we're facing our fateStaring through eyes of hate, we kill
Are we controlled or is it our own will?
Don't use our brain, we don't look for a reason
Don't feel ashame while put the blame on the demonSacred hell, sacred hell
There's nothing but names on the wall
You can be free, you can face tomorrowSacred hell, sacred hell
Now the fiend must be back on our ball
Don't sow the sin, don't reap the sorrowNo lucid intervals, no good will to guide
Devil in disguise
End in damnation 'cause we only hide
Calling him to riseStaring through eyes of hate, we kill
Are we controlled or is it our own will?
Don't use our brain, don't look for a reason
Don't feel ashame, don't put the blame on the demonSacred hell, sacred hell
There's nothing but names on the wall
You can be free, you can face tomorrowSacred hell, sacred hell
Now the fiend must be back on our ball
Don't sow the sin, don't reap the sorrowStaring through eyes of hate, we kill
Are we controlled or is it our own will?
Don't use our brain, don't look for a reason
Don't feel ashame, don't put the blame on the demonSacred hell, sacred hell
There's nothing but names on the wall
You can be free, you can face tomorrowSacred hell, sacred hell
Now the fiend must be back on our ball
Don't sow the sin, don't reap the sorrow
