

Snowbound

Kotipelto

All that i feel now the things inside
They keep on coming haunt me till I die
 No use in going somewhere to hide
The beauty of life has it been a lie?So many opinions, it's so hard to see
 Sometimes I don't know what's wrong or right
 Mist fills the ground below, the moon's leading me
And I'll find my way trough the darkest nightAll that I have seen on my journeys
 Have gone away lost in the maze
 I shut my eyes and dismiss what I see
My dreams torn apart they decay in my memoriesEverything I see is white haze
 It is all around like a nightmare
 I've been snowbound
