

Everchanging

Rise Against

In the face of change
Is when she turned to me and said
"I'm not sure anymore" And there amidst the waves and the cloudless skies
That blanket the year before, I watch my life wash ashore
Have you ever been a part of somethin'
That you thought would never end? And then of course it did
Have you ever felt the weight inside you, pulling away inside your skin?
And then something had to give Now the lines are drawn is this feeling gone?
The best parts of this have come and gone
And now that is all this is
With the reasons clear, we'll spend another year
Without direction full of fear
But now things will be different There's nothin' simple when it comes to you and I
Always somethin' in this ever changing life
And it probably always will
Now that time is getting harder to come by
The same arguments are always on our mind
We've killed this slowly fading light Now the lines are drawn is this feeling gone?
The best parts of this have come and gone
And now that is all this is
With the reasons clear, we'll spend another year
Without direction full of fear
But now things will be different And now something has kept me here too long
And you can't leave me if I'm already gone
And now something has kept me here too long
And you can't leave me if I'm already gone
And now something has kept me here too long
And you can't leave me if I'm already gone Now we make the same mistakes we're always hangin' on Break the promises we're always leanin' on
All this time spent wakin' up
Now I keep this line open to get this call from you
As you speak the words that keep me comin' back
To you now this time it's all different Now something has kept me here too long
And now I'm gone?

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>