Where Are You Now

Chester See

Writing a love song when you're not in love is like faking a smile when you've given up it only reminds you what you're dreaming of and she's not here writing a love song for no one to hear is like wishing on stars that never appear so don't be surprised when your eyes start to tear cause she's not here.Where are you now Do you need to be found are you lost in the crowd and I'm passing you am I moving too fast for you cause I'll slow down so where are you nowwriting a love song when you're not in love can tear at your heart if you're not strong enough it makes you aware that alone can be tough when she's not here searching for something that you cant search for she only appears when she's been ignored so stop all your searching she'll knock on your door but she's not hereWhere are you now
Do you need to be found
are you lost in the crowd and I'm passing you
am I moving too fast for you
cause I'll slow down
so where are you now I'm screaming out loud hopelessly thinking you'll hear me and come running to me but you're not around so where are you nowPiano soloWhere are you now
Do you need to be found
are you lost in the crowd and I'm passing you
am I moving too fast for you
cause I'll slow down
so where are you now
I'm screaming out loud
hopelessly thinking you'll hear me
and come running to me but you're not around
so where are you now

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/