

Sell Me Out

Bloodsimple

You're all I've known
All I adore,
You take all my scars and break my heart
And I ...Can never go back, never go back, never go back,
Never look back, never... look... back... AGAIN
This is the last time you try to justify for all the reasons
You'd sell me outYour all my heart
My flesh and blood
Nights so lonely without you around meNever go back, never go back, never go back
Never look back, never... look... back.. AGAIN
This is the last time you try to Justify for all the reasons you'd sell me outNever go back, never go back, never go back
Never look back, never look back.. AGAIN
This is the last time you try to ease my mind
For all the reasons you'd sell me outI will be you garden
Plant your bones
I will be your sovereign kingdom.This is the last time you try to justify
For all the reasons you'd sell me outThis is the last time you try to ease my mind
For all the reasons you'd sell me out
You'd sell me out
You'd sell me out
You sold out
