Criminal Love

Noonie Bao

I wonder if you're home tonight
I wonder if you're home tonightIs it even legal?
I wonder if you're home tonight
And now I'm on your doorstep
One more step won't change a thingI wonder if you're home tonight
I sneak in through your window, cross the line
A thousand men can't hold me downOh my baby and I
Two hearts, but one in denial
Oh my criminal love
If I go down, we go down together
And I don't care about right or wrong
So let me come inside, won't carry on
Feeling guilty for this crime, I know
But we should be togetherI wonder if you're home tonight
I wonder if you're home tonightIs it even legal?
To say you don't want me around
Tonight when you are sleeping
Who's going to put the fire out?I wonder if you're home tonight
Shadows moving in you kitchen light
Nothing's going to save you nowOh my baby and I
Two hearts, but one in denial
Oh my criminal love
If I go down, we go down together
And I don't care about right or wrong
So let me come inside, won't carry on
Felling guilty for this crime, I know
But we should be togetherI'll be waiting for your hallelujahs
I'll be waiting for your hallelujahs
I'll be waiting for your hallelujahs
I'll be waiting baby, and I'll never let goOh my baby and I
Two hearts, but one in denial
Oh my criminal love
If I go down, we go down together
And I don't care about right or wrong
So let me come inside, won't carry on
Feeling guilty for this crime, I know
But we should be togetherI wonder if you're home tonight
I wonder if you're home tonight

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/