Bite the Hand That Feeds

Paul Young

No communication, static on the line
No one understands me when I speak my mind
I just get the feeling that I want to let go
Surrounded by the people, I dont want to knowI think, why cant we be alone?
You and I in the moonlight
All the signs peak to overload
And I cant have my emotionAnd I bite the hand that feeds
Hurt, the heart that leads me
Trying so hard to explain
Feelings deep within meI got my suspicions, I could never win
Cause every step is taking me down that road again
I just get the feeling that I want to let go
Surrounded by the people, I dont want to knowI think why cant we be alone?
You and I with the lights down low
All the signs peak to overload
And I cant have my emotionAnd I bite the hand that feeds
Hurt, the heart that leads me
Trying so hard to explain
Feelings deep within meNow I feel the same way about you
Maybe its my jealousy
That makes me feel the way I doAnd I bite the hand that feeds
Hurt, the heart that leads me
Trying so hard to explain
Feelings deep within meAnd I bite the hand that feeds
Hurt, the heart that leads me
Trying so hard to explain
Feelings deep within meAnd I bite the hand that feeds me
Hurt, the heart that leads meAnd I bite the hand that feeds me
Hurt, the heart that leads meAnd I bite the hand that feeds me
Hurt, the heart that leads meAnd I bite the hand that feeds me
Hurt, the heart that leads meAnd I bite the hand that feeds me
Hurt, the heart that leads me
