

Watch Dog

Etta James

My man is a watch dog
My man is a watch dog, yeah I don't want no watch dog, I want a man, uh-huh
I don't want no watch dog, I want a man right now
I don't want no man of mine
Everywhere I go, now, he's a-right behind
I don't want no watch dog, I want a man Every time I visit my girlfriend's house
He sends his baby brother to check me out
I go outside to sweep in my front yard
He stands over me like a prison guard
I've never seen a man sneaking and a-hiding when he should be out working and providing He's a watch dog
Yeah, he's a watch dog
