

Away (feat. Susanne Sundfør)

Morten Myklebust

One of these days i will go and beat stones into nothing but sand and let it sink to sink to the bottom of the sea Yesterday i lost my bones i became pale and if you didn't know you would not have recognized me Oh, it sticks to my skin this light I fell into a love I'm so warm feels like I am losing now but i cannot give it away Just one more time for now before I sink into the deep Breathless, I think there's nothing more you can do to me One of these days we will slip become leaves and leave us both dry oh, falling for the sense of feeling free But, it sticks to my skin this light I fell into a love I'm so warm
but i cannot give it away Oh, it sticks to my skin this light I fell into a love I'm so warm
but i cannot give it away Oh, it sticks to my skin this light
but i cannot give it away
