Don't Waste Your Time

The Cats

Lately, I?ve got this funny feeling
Something don?t feel the same
But he?s telling me I?m the one to blame
Yes, I know that he still gives me good loving
But when he?s deep inside
There?s somebody else on his mind
Don?t waste your time but it gets so hard to know
Just walk away, you say that I gotta let go
Seen it a million times before
You shouldn?t take his stuff no more
Can?t waste my time, girl, it?s not hard to know
Should walk away, oh, you?ve gotta let it go
Seen it a million times before
Shouldn?t take his sh no more
Sister girl, sister girl
It?s much deeper than what you?re thinking, ooh
When something don?t feel the same
Yeah, you better believe his love has changed
(And I have been telling you, telling you)
And what you?re telling me
('Cause it?s been hurting me, hurting me)
It ain't, ain't any fool can see
He?s got a sweetie on the side
Stop making truth out of his lies
Don?t waste your time but it gets so hard to know
Oh, just walk away, you say that I gotta let go
Seen it a million times before
You shouldn?t take his stuff no more
Can?t waste my time, girl, it?s not hard to know
Should walk away, oh, you?ve gotta let it go
Seen it a million times before
Shouldn?t take his sh no more
What?s the point of love when you've got no trust
What?s the point of staying when you've seen enough
What?s the point of giving what he don?t deserve
He don?t deserve it, no, he don?t deserve it
Oh, what?s the point of feeling like there?s nothing inside
What?s the point of saying that you still got your pride
What?s the point of giving what he don?t deserve

This is the last time I?m gonna love you
Don?t waste your time, walk away
And there are illion times before, shouldn?t take it
Don?t waste my time, walk away
And there are million times before, shouldn?t take it
Don?t waste your time, walk away
And there are million times before, shouldn?t take it
Don?t waste my time, walk away
And there are million times before, shouldn?t take it
Don?t waste your time, walk away
