

Maybellene I Hofteholder

Volbeat

Saturday I love you like gold
Not like the Monday, you pass like a ghost
The fire killed you like a motherless child
I saw you last Sunday at Barbara Hotel
Oh oh oh oh oh, oh babe I'm so sorry, I've nowhere to

Could scream like a pig, could bark like a dog
Just to get attention as I'm chasing you down the hall
Oh Maybelenne you've been so lonely
Got a fire burning as I'm smoking you out again
Still all the leaves will keep on falling
Until I see you dancing on the table forty-five again

(I) see you dancing for the young wolves oh oh oh
Maybellene I Hofteholder
Could you be the only one
Well I beg you to come home
Dance forever my only one

Could scream like a pig, could bark like a dog
Just to get attention as I'm chasing you down the hall
Oh Maybellene you've been so lonely
Got a fire burning as I'm smoking you out again

(I) see you dancing for the young wolves oh oh oh
Maybellene I Hofteholder
(I) see you dancing for the young wolves oh oh oh
Maybellene I Hofteholder
Could you be the only one
Well I beg you to come home
Dance forever my only one

I flicked the switch at Monday night
Oh Maybellene I'm so sorry that I didn't see it coming
And now the sky, I filled with prayers
Oh baby I'm sorry I was blind

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by Poulsen, Michael Lyrics Â© EMI Music Publishing

Lyrics provided by <https://damnlyrics.com/>