Possessed

A Perfect Murder

Conditioning you to fear everything
Everything, even your own life
Whose world are you living in?
What world should you be believing in?Depression and aggression, surrounding you
Oppression and suffocation are consuming youIt's controlling you, it's possessing your mind
Cutting you down, so down to your spine
The torture is real as my eyes can see
No saving this slave from the violence and crimeDepression and aggression, surrounding you
Oppression and suffocation are consuming youOohIt's controlling you, it's possessing you
Over these atrocities I continue to rise
