

Paris Is Burning

Romance

I write to give word the war is over
Send my cinders home to mother
They gave me a medal for my valor
Leaden trumpets spit the soot of power
They say: "I'm on your side when nobody is, cause nobody is Come sit right here and sleep while I slip poison in your ear" We are waiting on a telegram to give us news of the fall
I am sorry to report dear Paris is burning after all
We have taken to the streets in open rejoice revolting
We are dancing a black waltz fair paris is burning after all Oh no oh no Enclosed in this letter there's a picture
Black and white for your refridgerator Sticks and stones have made me smarter it's words that cut me under my armor
They say: "I'm on your side when nobody is, cause nobody is,
come sit right here and sleep while I slip poison in your ear" We are waiting on a telegram to give us news of the fall
We have taken to the streets in open rejoice revolting
We are dancing a black waltz fair paris is burning after all Oh no oh no Dance, poor people, dance and drown
Dance, fair Paris, to the ground
Dance, poor people, dance and drown
Dance, fair Paris, ashes now
