No Answers (Ã† Mix)

Aeon Spoke

Up and away your words
And see an empty page in my book
But how much have I lost
When I've got nothing saved in my bookI think about how as a child
I used to sit beneath the tree
Avoiding the sun and look at the ground
As if I had no needsI'll find it
I'll find my way
Into another sun
I'm dreaming of someone else
That's found a way to loveI've hidden behind a wall
And yet I stand right beside you
The universe will make you full
If you state your claimsI don't want anything
I don't need anything more
I don't need anything moreI'll find it
I'll find my way
Into another sun
I'm dreaming of someone else
That's found found a way to loveI have no answers
There are no answers noI never really want to know
I have no answersJust when I'm think I'm over I know
It feels all rightI never really want to know
And it feels all rightJust when I think I'm over I know
It feels all rightAnd it feels all right
And it feels all right
And it feels all right
And it feels all right
