Deep Peace

Sara Martin

It's alright to cry
It's alright to lean on everyone
It's alright to lie in the bed you've made for everyoneAnd anytime you need someone,
Anytime you heed someone
Anytime you need me babe, I will be there.It's alright to die
It's alright to bleed on everyone
It's alright this time
It's all life, you learn from everyoneWith every single time you go
...And every single line you blow
Anytime you need it man, I won't be there(inside the picture of the huge, sterile balck and white diner on a rainy Sunday afternoon in chinatown)It's all going away now
...All going away now
Going, going...gone
Going, going...goneIt's alright to cry
It's alright to feed on everyone
It's alright to hide,
In your cozy bed from everyoneSo anytime you need it man,
Get inside and be it man...
Anytime you call,
Suffer!!!
