

Beyond Good and Evil (live)

At the Gates

Jesus, no prince of my starved Hell to be
No way, my world it dies with meFar beyond your eyes they seek Beyond bonds of stars and skies
The kingdom where nothing diesI am the stars burning evil in your heart
    Beyond good and evil, we will never part
        For every man and woman is a star
    Cause I burn inside you all, we will never part
